Welcome Message

Support the movement shaping the future of learning and organizational growth!

As the greatest conference for humans, by humans, IMPACT! CHOLearning 2025 is the premier gathering of professionals dedicated to advancing human and organizational learning. Hosted by the Community of Human and Organizational Learning (CHOLearning), this annual event brings together thought leaders, industry pioneers, and changemakers who are shaping the future of workplace learning, leadership development, and operational excellence.

Set against the vibrant backdrop of Columbus, Ohio during the week of June 16-20, 2025, this is more than just a conference—it's a hub for transformative conversations, innovative strategies, and real-world applications that drive business success. Through interactive sessions, cutting-edge case studies, and unparalleled networking opportunities, attendees gain actionable insights that truly impact their organizations.

As a Community Partner, your sponsorship goes beyond supporting a single event—it helps sustain year-round learning initiatives that drive meaningful progress in human and organizational learning. As a nonprofit organization, The Community is committed to advancing knowledge and practice, not just commercial interests. Aligning your brand with this mission demonstrates a genuine investment in the future of workplace learning, leadership, and operational excellence while amplifying your visibility among an engaged and forward-thinking audience.

About the Conference

The IMPACT! CHOLearning 2025 conference embraces our shared expertise on the People, Processes, and Profitability of modern organizations. Attendees will explore how deploying lessons learned can create more resilient workplaces, foster sustainable growth, and strengthen organizational culture. Together, we will examine the critical intersections of learning from events and normal work, sparking growth across all dimensions of enterprise.

Key Topics this Year:

- Everyday Excellence: Recognizing the value of learning from normal work to drive consistent progress and innovation.
- Insight-Driven Growth: Using data, dialogue, and learning to create feedback-rich environments building resilience and profitability.
- Human-Technology Interface: Exploring how data-driven tools like AI and wearable technology empower organizations to learn and adapt in real-time.
- Resilient, Learning-Centric Workplaces: Prioritizing mental health, accountability, and continuous improvement in day-to-day operations.
- Social Science, Neuroscience, and Influence in Action: Leveraging advancements in science to enhance organizational culture and influence strategies.

We're shifting the lens forward. Let's make an IMPACT! on our organizations for years to come. It's time to embrace innovation and growth to equip our conference attendees with actionable insights.

Why Partner

IMPACT! Conferences are an intimate gathering of decision-makers, industry pioneers, and game changers who ignite transformation within their organizations. This is not a massive trade show where your brand gets lost in the crowd—this is a focused, high-impact environment where conversations and relationships spark innovation.

By supporting The Community, your partnership fuels not only this event but our year-round learning initiatives. Our identity as a Community and our mission, extend beyond commercial interests—we're a movement fostering real, sustainable change in the way organizations learn, lead, and grow. Joining this movement showcases your commitment to meaningful, long-term impact.

Who You'll Reach

#tickettolearning Week

During the first week in May, the Community of Human and Organizational Learning holds an online event, exclusive to LinkedIn. The event introduces followers to the conference speakers, shares critical information about the conference, showcases our Community Partners, and offers followers a chance to win a discount on conference attendance.

This preview event is a successful, largescale, final ticket sales tactic.

Logo inclusion through the calendar year 2025.*

There are only a few events Magpie sponsors each year, and CHOLearning is one of them. Why? Because there isn't another gathering that provides as much value to safety and resilience professionals, especially in a true community free of sales pitches and marketing. We're in the business of changing safety in the work world for the better, and The Community is a perfect reflection of our values.

- Ben Goodheart, Magpie Human Systems

Sponsorship Policy

Background

Nonprofit organizations are exempt from federal income taxes if the sources and uses of the organization's funds are Qualified Activities. The IRS requires nonprofit organizations to report Unrelated Business Income (UBI) as taxable income and pay the appropriate tax (UBIT). In the simplest explanation, the Community may receive non-taxable income from Sponsorships but must pay UBIT for Advertisements.

Policy

Any member of the board or other authorized person may solicit and accept funds for Sponsorships. The board shall review and approve the solicitation or acceptance of Advertising. Advertising income shall be reported as UBI.

Definitions – Derived from 26 U.S. Code § 513 - Unrelated Trade or Business

1. Advertisement – Any payment for use or acknowledgement of a business name, logo, likeness, or product that contains qualitative or comparative language, price information, or other indications of savings or value, an endorsement, or an inducement to purchase, sell, or use such products or services shall be considered an Advertisement.
2. Qualified Activity – Any activity that is tax exempt and meets the mission of The Community is considered a Qualified Activity. This includes conferences, webinars, communications, and other activities that educate, familiarize, or stimulate interest in The Community about methods, training, skills, techniques, new developments or products and services related to the professions represented in The Community.
3. Qualified Sponsorship Payment (QSP) - The term Qualified Sponsorship Payment means any payment made by any person engaged in a trade or business with respect to which there is no arrangement or expectation that such person, trade or business will receive any substantial return benefit other than the use or acknowledgement of the name or logo (or product lines) of such person's trade or business in connection with the activities of The Community. A QSP may not include any payment that that is contingent upon the level of attendance at events, broadcast ratings, or other factors indicating the degree of public exposure.
4. Sponsorship – Any payment for Sponsorship shall meet the definition for a Qualified Sponsorship Payment (QSP).
5. Unrelated Business Income (UBI) – UBI is income derived from any trade or business which is not substantially related to the exercise or performance by such organization's charitable, educational, or other purpose or function constituting the basis for its exemption under IRC Section 501.
